

Sugarcane rain

Sugarcane rain Let it fall down sweetly upon me
Like a sea, drenching me
From red blood skies
Falls this springtime wine
That now runs, a mighty raging river to soaks my skin
The deserts of my limbs
Within like a sweetly scented sin
Hear it sing, deep within
Till at last I overflow
O sugarcane, here you reign
As you drown me in your sea
In shantytowns of the human soul
I'll dance the hummingbirds of heaven upon my toes
Here where all the stars are eyes of untamed jaguars
Leaping down, leaping down
Sweet the taste of this sugarcane
As it rains and rains upon me to soak my skin
The deserts of my limbs and now
Within like a sweetly scented sin
Hear it sing, deep within
Oh, come with me through the heat-stained breeze
Where we'll dance the spicy mango in the rhythm grove
Here where all the stars are eyes of untamed jaguars
Leaping down, leaping down

Further and Further, Deeper and Deeper

How many times I wanted to stop
Being on the edge of my life
How many times I doubted in my head
Loosing faith in myself
Swallowed so much bitterness
But keep heads up high Repeating my mantra
No matter what I've been through I learned how to get up again
Picturing where I will be
Further and further, Deeper and deeper
My powerful reflexion
Further and further, Deeper and deeper
My personal journey will keep goin' on

Fly High

Sprit open with wide-opened eyes
Your mind, your soul, your heart
Spinnin' round and round in this unknown world where a piece of infinite awaits there
So finally I can fly, fly away
To the place where I've been searchin'
I can tell this feeling growing in my mind
So finally I can touch, touch the sky
Fly against the sky so high
Fly high away and catch undiscovered dreams

Écho d'Azur

L'écho du chant des oiseaux
En ajoutant une légère nuance d'été
Facinée par la beauté de ses notes
Fait illuminer des mots d'amour
L'écho du chant des oiseaux
En ajoutant une légère couleur d'été
Rythmé par la sonorité de ses notes
Fait délivrer des mots d'amour vers toi
Le ciel azur, nuages absents, la mer infinie
Le vent se lève, la vague danse, l'étincelle envolée
Les ailes azurs, voyage du temps, amère symphonie
Le temps se lève, la mer avance, l'esprit envolé...

Summer Unleashed

Blues Skies, Shining Sea, Wind Blow, Songbird

The One

If I should ever be the one
The rose that grows within your garden
Or at least a light when it's dark
That star that shines from afar
Or if you have fallen lost upon the way
If you go and say all your colours seem so grey
And how heavy this old world on your shoulders it weights
This song I'll sing as winter turns to spring
And soon your heart will know
I'm the warmth that melts the snow
And that in your life I am the only one
O this song I'll sing to let the world begin
Like a desert grows the perfection of a rose
And to show that in your life I am the one

Le Vent de demain (Ashita no Kaze)

Had a rough day?
Nothin' ever really went as I wished
Just Feel like sinkin' as deepest as I could and shut my world
Take a deep breath and feel the breeze
You never know what kind of surprise awaits you there
Ashita no Kaze wa kitto fukuyo
Ima koso kanjiru mamani
Ashita no Kaze wa kitto kawaru...
Ima koso kanjiru mamani
Ashita no Kaze ni konomi wo makase...
